Background and Experience

Della M. Hill works on privacy, corporate, M&A, commercial, licensing, tax, and other business-related matters for U.S. and international clients. Della is certified by the International Association of Privacy Professionals (CIPP/US) and devotes a substantial amount of her time advising clients on the complex regulatory framework applicable to consumer-facing businesses. She provides guidance and support for compliance with U.S. state and federal laws relating to data privacy, e-commerce contracts, marketing and promotional campaigns such as sweepstakes and contests, social media content, endorsements, and influencer campaigns, and other highly regulated consumer-based business activities.

Della is a graduate of the University of Virginia School of Law, where she was an editor of the Virginia Journal of Social Policy and the Law. Before joining MacDonald Weiss, Della served as the judicial law clerk to the Presiding Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals, one of the two highest courts in the State of Texas.

Della received her B.A. degree from the College of William and Mary. She spent a summer term studying in Bath, England, as well as a semester in Paris, France where she earned a Certificat de Langue et Civilisation Françaises (Niveau Supérieur) from the Cours de Civilisation Française de la Sorbonne. After receiving her B.A. degree, Della taught English as a second language near Bordeaux, France, a position obtained through the Ministère de l'Éducation Nationale. She then spent two years at Bromberg, Kohler Maya & Maschler, a Washington DC law firm with an international client base. Elle parle français.
